Dear David Morgan Bevan,

EMBARGO: Please do not share the outcome of your application to the Community Ownership Fund or the contents of this letter and the attached documents, until 17:00 Wednesday 15th March.

Outcome of Community Ownership Fund application (Round 2 Window 2)

Thank you for submitting your application to the Department for Levelling Up, Housing and Communities for the Community Ownership Fund (COF) Round 2.

Unfortunately, your application did not meet the minimum scoring requirements as set out in the COF prospectus and assessment criteria guidance.

I recognise that this outcome will be disappointing for you. Attached is a feedback letter provided by officials, setting out where your application did not meet the minimum scoring requirements, and how you can access further support and advice.

Once again, I would like to thank you for your interest and participation in the application process.

With every good wish,

DEHENNA DAVISON MP

Dear David Morgan Bevan,

EMBARGO: Please do not share the outcome of your application to the Community Ownership Fund or the contents of this letter and the attached documents, until 17:00 Wednesday 15th March.

Unique Reference Number: ANON-1AQE-K3EY-4

This letter details where your application did not meet the minimum scoring criteria and sets out how to get further support to improve your application should you wish to apply in a future bidding window.

Your application did not meet the minimum scoring requirements as set out in the COF prospectus and assessment criteria guidance in the the Management Case section.

Our Development Support Provider is now available, and you can contact them for advice via the My Community website. In-depth support for COF applicants will be available from Round 3 onwards. Please refer to the COF prospectus for further detail.

Window 3 of the Community Ownership Fund is currently open and closes at 11:59am Friday 14th April. If you feel you are able to act upon the feedback provided to you before the close of the window, you are welcome to submit an application. To complete your full application, please follow this link: <https://frontend.access-funding.levellingup.gov.uk/> using your Unique Reference Number as stated in this letter. Please note that this link should only be used for your project's own application to the Fund and is not for further sharing.

Please refer to the factsheet attached to this email for a high-level summary of the common causes for unsuccessful bids in Round 2 Window 2. Should you wish to apply in a future round of COF funding, this factsheet also offers broad tips on how to improve your application.

Yours sincerely

The Community Ownership Fund Team
